Internet Permission Slip

Access to the Internet will enable young people to explore thousands of libraries, databases, and informational sites. Although the library staff will be available to help young people find information they need, they cannot censor an individual's information seeking activities. It is important that parents know that some material available on the internet may be found objectionable to some people.

I grant permission for _____ to access the Internet and I agree to accept responsibility for setting standards for my child to follow when using the Internet at the Whitehall Free Library. My child and I have read the attached Acceptable Use Policy and agree to follow the Internet Use Guidelines of the Library.

Parent/Guardian Name: _____ Signature: _____

Child's Name: _____ Signature: _____

Whitehall Free Library Internet and Computer Usage Policy

The Whitehall Free Library invites the community to use the internet at no cost. Computers in the library are available on a first come, first serve basis for 45 minutes.

The library staff will assist patrons logging onto the computer. Formal internet and computer training is not currently available from the library staff, however, patrons are encouraged to ask for help if needed.

We offer the internet to provide access to online information. Information found on the internet is not subject to any in house review. We provide this information to the public without censorship. Users are expected to use the internet appropriately in the library. ENTERING CHAT ROOMS IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND ANYONE OBSERVED DOING SO WILL LOSE THEIR INTERNET PRIVILEGES.

YOUNG ADULTS 13-17 MAY USE INTERNET AS LONG AS THEY HAVE A PATRON CARD AND WRITTEN PERMISSION ON FILE.

Work may not be saved on the hard drive.

Deliberate attempts to misuse the library computers or seek unauthorized access to files, damage or alter any software or hardware will result in suspension of computer privileges.
